Call for Applications to the Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority Board of Directors

Travis County is seeking qualified applicants to serve on the Board of Directors of the Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority (CTRMA). The CTRMA was created in 2002 as a joint effort between Travis and Williamson counties to expand mobility options in the region. The CTRMA is governed by a seven-member board, with three appointees each from Travis and Williamson counties and a chair appointed by the governor.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS:

There are several legal requirements for membership on the Board. Those requirements are set forth in the enclosed affidavit, which all applicants must sign and notarize and submit with their application. Please carefully study the affidavit before executing it. Additionally, applicants must be a resident of Travis County.

SKILL SET DESIRED:

The Commissioners Court seeks individuals with exceptional vision, business and administrative skills and experience, and history of significant community involvement. A Board Member will work with all jurisdictions within the two counties, reflecting local sensitivities and ideals in the decision-making process, but principally represent the interests of the Travis County Commissioners Court.

The CTRMA's mission is to implement innovative, multi-modal transportation solutions that reduce congestion and create transportation choices that enhance quality of life and economic vitality. The Mobility Authority is authorized to issue revenue bonds to fund projects and can utilize user fees and/or taxes to fund operations and repay bonds. Candidates must master the challenges of regional transportation planning and the intricacies of public finance in ways that command the confidence of all stakeholders in the community. Therefore, s/he must possess understanding of the Central Texas regions and its needs, good business judgment and unquestioned integrity.

Preference will be given to a candidate with a career history demonstrating skills in more than one of the following:

- Experience serving on Boards of Directors for high-level businesses or for-profit organizations
- Demonstrated leadership experience requiring strategic planning, execution, and maintenance of successful business operations
- Significant knowledge of state & federal transportation funding and experience dealing with complex financial instruments
- Experience working with and knowledge of the jurisdictions within the CTRMA service area
- Knowledge of the issues and components related to multi-modal transportation solutions such as right of way acquisition, community impact, environmental review, design and construction alternatives
- Willingness to listen and communicate with stakeholders, recognizing that transportation impacts affordability, environment, community, economic development and many other critical quality of life factors
- Recognition of Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority's fiduciary responsibility to taxpayers and a commitment to transparency
- Commitment to the mission, vision, and values of both CTRMA and the Travis County Commissioners Court
